SEPA – Direct debit mandate For membership fees

Please send the original to the payee's address.

Name and address of the payee (creditor) DIE MAUS, Gesellschaft für Familienforschung e.V., Bremen Am Staatsarchiv 1, 28203 Bremen
Creditor identification number DE53 ZZZ0 0000 5177 71	Mandate reference will be communicated separately

This SEPA direct debit mandate for the core direct debit scheme should be used for recurrent payment /  one-time payment.

I would like to increase the amount to be collected by a donation of  euros.

The first direct debit should be made for the  current /  upcoming contribution year.

I/We authorize DIE MAUS to collect payments from my/our account by direct debit.
At the same time, I/we instruct my/our bank to honor the direct debits drawn by DIE MAUS on my/our account.

Note: I/We can demand reimbursement of the debited amount within eight weeks, starting from the debit date. The terms and conditions agreed with my/our credit institution apply.

Note: If your account does not have sufficient funds, your bank is not required to honor the SEPA direct debit. Failure to notify us of changes to your IBAN or BIC will also result in an unsuccessful collection attempt. In such cases, the banks charge MAUS fees, which MAUS then passes on to you.
